Program Terms & Conditions

AFTERTREATMENT PROGRAM

The original DPFxFIT™ product must be returned for repair or replacement at the discretion of GESi®. GESi® and the product owner agree that GESi®'s liability in respect of an authorized repair is limited to the cost of repairing or replacing the DPFxFIT™ product with a replacement unit. All parts of the DPFxFIT™ are covered under warranty for thirty-six (36) months, unlimited mileage.

What's Covered:

- Workmanship (faulty weld).
- Faulty/cracked/damaged substrate.
- Incorrect bung, fitting and/or mounting hardware on the unit.
- Incorrect location of bung, fitting and/or mounting hardware on the unit.
- Missing components (bung, fitting, mounting hardware, etc.) on the unit.
- Damage during shipping, resulting in inability to install unit (with evidence that can be reasonably determined to be the result of shipping ie; damage to outside of box showing point of impact).

What is Not Covered:

- Repairs or replacement resulting from accidental damage (unit dropped, installation errors, etc.)
- Repairs or replacement resulting from damage from an external cause (road hazard or impact by road debris).
- Use of improper fuel resulting in repairs or replacement caused after the use of diesel fuel with sulphur content greater than 0.5%.
- Operation after engine wear results in excessive oil consumption or when the engine has not been properly maintained.
- Any evidence of a thermal event or upstream condition that could cause any one of the following:
 - Example: melted substrate or filter/catalyst wall
 - Example: high soot loading (filter/catalyst is clogged, restricted flow, etc.)
- Damaged filter due to contamination from but not limited to oil, fuel and/or coolant.
- Repairs or replacement resulting from alterations or modifications to the engine and/or aftertreatment system.
 - Example: ECU shows faults related to the aftertreatment system or engine within warranty period/claim.
 - Example: part of aftertreatment system removed/deleted.
- Repair or replacement resulting from normal vibration, deterioration, distortion or deformation.
- Where there is evidence of tampering with the odometer or other device for measuring the length of engine use.
- Any alteration of the DPFxFIT™ product.
- Unauthorized repairs.
- Labour for removal and installation of the DPFxFIT™ product.
- Where repair or replacement is required as a result of environmental causes, acts of riot or similar causes or acts of God.
- All consequential and/or resultant loss damage, injury, death and expenses resulting from any kind whatsoever suffered by any person or thing except as specifically provided for herein.
